CARRANZA'S SUCCESSOR CHOSEN AT CONFERENCE

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 2.—The conference of revolutionary chiefs at Aguas Calientes has disregarded General Carranza's protest and elected Eulalio Gutierrez Provisional President of Mexico, according to an official report reaching the border today.

Gutierrez was appointed provisional governor of the State of San Luis Potosi by Carranza at the beginning of the constitutional revolution. He is regarded, however, as more of a sympathizer with Villa in the present controversy. The naming of Gutierrez as head of the convention of chiefs and acting chief executive of the nation came as a surprise at this time. He previously had not been mentioned as a possibility for the office. Details of the voting were not received here.

The new President of Mexico comes of the lower middle classes. Before he became a revolutionist he was a grocer. The voting at the convention did not end until after midnight. Gutierrez received 85 votes. His nearest competitor was General Juan Cabral, the Sonora commander, for whom 20 of the delegates voted.

CIVIL WAR THREATENED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Latest official dispatches today from Mexico City said that Carranza was threatening civil war unless the convention complied with his demand to retire Villa and Zapata with his resignation. The Mexico City papers, by order of Carranza, are publishing the correspondence with Washington over the conditions of evacuation of Vera Cruz.

The United States has addressed a note through the Brazilian minister in Mexico City to General Carranza reiterating its willingness to withdraw the American forces in Vera Cruz, but insisting on a compliance with the original demands of the State Department for certain guarantees.

A copy of the note was sent simultaneously to the American consular agent at Aguas Calientes to be laid formally before the convention. The document sets forth that the United States has been

This information is conveyed in a letter received in Berlin from the front.

Election Betting Shows Close Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Betting that Governor Johnson would carry the state stood 2 to 1 in his favor, and 19 to 4 that he will carry San Francisco, in the poolrooms today. Fredericks was the favorite at odds of 10 to 8 to carry Los Angeles county, his home county.

Knowledge ruled a 10 to 6 favorite, against the field, in the senatorial contest and the odds that Phelan would get more votes than Heney were 2 to 1. That prohibition would fail was a 6 to 1 choice.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Panama Canal has been closed to navigation by another landslide. Colonel Goethals hopes to have it open again on Wednesday.

As understood at the canal offices this slide is only an aftereffect of the landslide of October 14, when nearly three-quarters of a million yards of earth and rock slowly slipped from the hillside down into the canal prism.

Germans Renew Aggressive Along Entire Line Into France

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 2, 4:55 p. m.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that German 42 centimetre guns have been placed on Borkum island, in the North sea.

The fighting in the vicinity of Ostend on the south side apparently waged throughout Sunday. From the battlefield German wounded moved back in the direction of Bruges. The fact that the allies apparently have been gaining considerably so near the coast line indicates to British observers how valuable have been the services of the warships, which hold their positions in spite of the presence of German submarines. The water in other ways has been a great advantage to the allies, for the Germans have admitted that they have been hampered by the inundation of their trenches through the cutting of dykes and the opening of sluices in the lower country.

Assuming that Turkey's casting in of her lot with Germany is an accomplished fact, the British press admits that the cruisers Goeben and Breslau are a serious menace, as Russia has nothing to compare with them in speed and equipment.

GERMAN ATTACK VIOLENT.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Nov. 2, 2:48 p. m.—The French official announcement given out in Paris this afternoon says that yesterday the German attack on the French left wing, particularly between Dixmude and the Lys, continued with great violence. In spite of the counter attacks of the enemy in this region the French made slight progress. The text of the communication follows:

"On our left wing the German offensive continued yesterday with the same violence in Belgium and in the north of France, particularly between Dixmude and the Lys. In this region, in spite of attacks and counter-attacks on the part of the Germans, we made slight progress on almost the entire front, excepting at the village of Messines, where ground was lost by allied troops.

"The enemy undertook an important movement against the suburbs of Arras. This resulted in failure, as did other movements against Lillers and Lequesnoy-En-Santerre.

"On the center, in the region of the Aisne, we made slight progress in the direction of Tracy-Le-Val, to the north of the forest of Algue, as well as at certain points on the right bank of the Aisne, between this forest and Soissons.

"At Amont-de-Vailly an attack directed against those of our troops who are in possession of the heights on the right bank of the Aisne also

GUNBOATS BLOCK SUEZ.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 2, 7:11 a. m.—A Rome dispatch to the Central News asserts that Turkish gunboats are reported at the entrance to the gulf of Suez. Numerous detachments of Turkish cavalry, according to the same dispatch, have arrived at Akabah, a fortified village of Arabia, on the gulf.

NO OFFENSIVE OPENED.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 2, 1:38 p. m.—Although four days have passed since Turkish warships ran amuck in the Black sea, neither Russia nor Great Britain had, up to noon today, so far as was known in London, opened the offensive or even formally declared war against Turkey.

The British press treats the situation as having reached a stage permitting no about-face by the Turkish government. Thus, while the struggle in France and Belgium remains undecided, Germany and Austria have at last acquired their first ally and the area of the fighting in the great war has spread over the borders of Asia into Egypt.

Along the battle line in the western area there has been no decisively important change in territory for the past fortnight, although slow advance of the extreme allied left in West Flanders is claimed. All reports seem to agree that the tide of battle in this direction is flowing against the Germans, but it is felt in London that it will take some time yet to decide whether they must abandon their attempt to reach Calais, to accomplish which they already have paid so dearly.

The ports, it is said, are well-guarded by the British and French fleets. "I am officially informed," says the correspondent, "that a circular announcing the mobilization of the Greek army has been received by the foreign consuls."

The Daily Mail's Copenhagen correspondent says he learns that Germany is preparing to issue a new war loan of $1,250,000,000.

GERMANS FORCE ISSUE

KAISER'S TROOPS SCORE SUCCESS ON RIVER AISNE

TRIPLE ENTENTE READY TO DRIVE TURK INTO ASIA

By Associated Press.
BERLIN (by wire), Nov. 2.—Information given out today for the press official quarters is as follows:
"The progress of the fighting on the front in the North of France is regarded here as highly favorable. The report given out yesterday, with its news that the French had been thrown back across the Aisne at a point near Soissons, and that the operations already had been extended to the west front of Verdun, is regarded as the most favorable issue for some time past."
"Letters from the front reaching Berlin describe the fighting between Neuport and Ypres as probably the fiercest of the war. The Germans forced their way southward by repeated night attacks."
"The toll of death was great on both sides."
"The fighting in Poland has not yet become decided, but in Galicia, according to special dispatches, events would appear to be approaching a decisive moment. A dispatch received here from Cracow says the Russians have been thrown back across the river San and across from Leszno, whence the Austrians pursued them for a distance of four miles."
"AUSTRIANS HOLD GAINS."
"An Austrian official report declares merely that the Austrian forces in Central Galicia have retained all the captured positions to the north and east of Turka, and from Leszno to the east of Przemyśl, and the lower San river. They repulsed an attack near Disco, the Russians losing many prisoners."
"A Russian column composed of infantry, cavalry and artillery has been defeated to the north of Kuty, on the frontier of Bukovina and Galicia."

TO-DAY'S WAR DEVELOPMENTS

The renewed assaults of the Germans, which have led in the last few days to the most violent fighting of the war, still are progressing with fury almost unparalleled, but there have been no changes of importance along the 200-mile line of battle.

Official reports today from Berlin and Paris agree that the deadlock still prevails. Here and there minor advantages have been won, but in the main the positions are being held on both sides with dogged tenacity, notwithstanding the enormous sacrifices of life.

The confidence of Germany as to the ultimate result is reflected in the words of Emperor William:
"Under all circumstances the enemy will be beaten," he said in addressing one of his regiments.

Berlin states officially that the situation is regarded as being favorable for some time, although it gives no new details of the fighting.

The French statement is equally hopeful in tone. The allies are said to have made slight progress at various points, including the blood-soaked fields of Flanders. On the center and right of the allied lines assaults of the Germans are said to have been repulsed.

The German and Austrian forces in the east, compelled to retire before the Russian advance, have taken up new positions and a renewal of general fighting is expected. Austrian successes on the Russian left flank are claimed in Berlin.

Apparently Turkey is now definitely involved in the general war. What the allies describe as the "last chance" for Turkey to keep out of the struggle by disavowing responsibility for the acts of her Black Sea fleet, has not been accepted and the British government today handed his passports to the Turkish ambassador, following similar action by Russia.

Meantime the Turkish fleet continues its acts of aggression. The Goeben and Breslau, German cruisers acquired by Turkey, and four Turkish torpedo boats are reported to have torpedoed the bombardment of Russian towns in the Crimea. The presence of Turkish gunboats is re-

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—No Americans were injured in the Turkish bombardment of Odessa and the damage to American property was insignificant, according to a report today from the American consul at Odessa.

By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, via London, Nov. 2, 2:05 a. m.—The correspondent of the Handelsblad telegraphs that the Turkish cruiser Sultan Zelim which bombarded Sebastopol, is the cruiser known as the Goeben when the vessel was under the German flag.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 2, 9:25 a. m.—War has not yet been formally declared on Turkey, but the withdrawal from Constantinople of the ambassadors of the triple entente powers is regarded in London as being equivalent to a signal for hostilities which Turkey has anticipated by a naval raid in the Black Sea, and it is reported, by a land expedition, which penetrated into Egypt.
Evidence accumulates that Turkey intends to proclaim a holy war. Ample measures, however, it is asserted, have been taken by Great Britain and Russia against this probability, and it is evident that the first trouble is expected to arise in Egypt, where it is said the Khedive intends to ask Great Britain for an explanation of her attitude toward Turkey.

DEFENSIVE, BERLIN SAYS.
Berlin claims that Turkey was forced to throw in her lot with Germany because the port recognized that an entente victory would mean the disruption of the Turkish empire, with Turkey, Armenia and Kurdistan going to Russia, Arabia to England and Syria to France. On the other hand in the event of the defeat of the triple entente nations, Turkey was to be guaranteed territorially, to be given aid in conquering the Caucasus and Egypt and be given, perhaps, something more.
The usual charges and denials are being made as to the responsibility for the first attack in the Black Sea, but these are issued chiefly for consumption by the neutral countries, since the inevitability of the conflict was recognized by both sides. The principal actors are now greatly concerned over which nation fired the opening shot.
The battles along the Belgian coast still are dragging on with painful monotony. Advances by either side are for the most part trifling and are at fearful cost. Further east the allies claim to have penetrated the north and to the east of Lille, which is believed to have been recaptured by the allied troops.

Other reports claim that the allies daily are creeping nearer to Ostend, which even now hardly can be said to be occupied in a military sense, but as long as the Germans hold the river the town does not need any considerable force to retain it.
Another unconfirmed special report also states that large German forces were cut off from the main army when a Belgian bicycle corps blew up a bridge and that many thousands of the invaders surrendered.

SOUGHT TO PACIFY.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Delayed messages from Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople, dated late Saturday, revealed here today, says Turkish ministers of agriculture and interior, through a neutral diplomat, asked the Russian ambassador before his departure what terms would pacify Russia and if an apology would be satisfactory.
The Russian ambassador replied that he had instructions to leave Constantinople, but that if all the German officers were dismissed from the Turkish navy and he received further instructions from Petrograd he would return.
Ambassador Morgenthau assisted in arranging a special train for the British, French and Russian ambassadors, who left Saturday night, and later arranged for another special train to remove the panic-stricken Germans.

Cruiser Goeben Is Damaged by Shells Before Sebastopol.
By Associated Press.
PETROGRAD, via London, Nov. 2.—A dispatch from Sebastopol says that the former German cruiser Goeben's bombardment of the Black Sea fort was put to an end by the German submarines, which forced the warship to withdraw.
The dispatch further states that the Goeben was hit by a mine, which caused her to be damaged, and that she would return to Constantinople for repairs.

Petrograd Rejoices for Impending Fall of Ottoman Empire.
By Associated Press.
PETROGRAD, Nov. 2, via London.—All the Russian newspapers express only enthusiastic gratification at Turkey's entrance into the war, declaring that it makes the Turkish question possible of settlement at once and for all time.
"It is Russia's opportunity," says the Bourse Gazette. "There is no general combination of powers such as several times saved Turkey from final destruction by the heavy hammer of Russian forces. With the blood of our sons we have shown the allies our friendship, and therefore nothing will move them once more to hold back our hand."
"We shall for once receive only help and co-operation from the French fleet in the Aegean. We will then watch the enemy in the rear; we will tackle him in front by sea and by land. Russia accepts the challenge thrown down by the mad hirelings of Germany and matches to the fulfillment of her destiny with undimmed faith."
The Novaya Vremya calls upon the Balkan states to declare themselves, remembering that Russia has done for them in the past.
"The day when the Turkish forces were handed over to the Germans was the day of the virtual death of the once glorious Ottoman empire," says this paper. "The commander of the German army and other German officers simply acted as the funeral guard."

MONTENEGRINS ADVANCE.
By Associated Press.
PARIS, Nov. 2.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Cattinjo, dated Sunday says: "The Montenegrins yesterday continued the bombardment of Fort Vermatz, near Cattaro (Dalmatia). A shell penetrated the munition depot, blowing up the fort. The Montenegrins marching on Gasko (in Herzegovina, near the Montenegro frontier) yesterday occupied an important position at Kobilja, inflicting an appreciable loss on the enemy."
The Turkish Ambassador has not yet left his residence. At the Turkish Embassy it is stated that no news has been received from Constantinople. The ambassador has refused to see newspapermen.

TURKISH FLEET FEARED LOSS.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—A Reuter dispatch from Constantinople gives an official communication issued at Constantinople and reaching Amsterdam by way of Berlin. It says that according to declarations of Russian sailors the Russian fleet intended to blockade the Bosphorus by mines, in order to divide the Turkish fleet and completely destroy it. The Turkish fleet, the communication adds, fearing the Russians would open hostilities without a declaration of war, pursued the Russian fleet and dispersed it.
SHIPS SHELLED.
By Associated Press.
PETROGRAD, via London, Nov. 2.—The newspaper reports that the cruisers Goeben and Breslau and four Turkish torpedo boats bombarded the shore near Sebastopol yesterday morning, shelling the railroad and docks. The Russian shore batteries replied. The warships disappeared along the Crimean shore to the east after inflicting trivial damage.
Theodosia, on the Crimean coast, 100 miles northeast of Sebastopol, also suffered a bombardment on Saturday, when a Turkish cruiser sailed close enough to throw thirty shells into the city.
News has been received at the foreign office that the Russian ambassador has left Constantinople, but the Turkish minister here has not yet received his passports or instructions from Constantinople.

British Ship Taken by German Cruiser.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—A message to the chamber of commerce from its New York correspondents reports the capture of the British steamer Vandyck, 6499 tons net which left New York October 13, by the German cruiser Karlsruhe, which has been active in the Caribbean. No particulars or dates are given.

resulted in failure. The same outcome attended several night attacks delivered on the heights of the Highway Des Dames.
"In the region of Rheims: Between the Argonne and the Meuse and on the heights of the Meuse there was noticed yesterday a recrudescence of activity on the part of the enemy's heavy artillery. The bombardment of these pieces, however, did not show any appreciable result."
"On our right wing an offensive movement of reconnaissance by the enemy on Nomeny was repulsed."
"In the Vosges, in addition to the fact that we have recaptured the heights which dominate Mont Saline, we have made progress in the region of Essey-Saint, where we occupy the positions from which the artillery of the enemy has been bombarding the town of St. Die."

AWAIT RETREAT ON YSER.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 2, 8:50 a. m.—The allied troops, according to official information here, still are determinedly meeting the latest vigorous offensive movement of the Germans in Belgium and in France. To date the French and English assert that the line of the Yser, which has been the scene of the fiercest fighting, is being held by a general and decisive withdrawal of the enemy on the right bank of the Yser.
"While it is admitted that the allies have not regained all of the lost ground in the valley of the Yser, their own gains in that region give every hope of a general success. In the vicinity of Neuport and Dixmude the enemy has been repulsed beyond the railroad, while the foundation of a new line of defense is being laid between Dixmude and Ypres. Roulers and Thourout."
The French say there is more significance in the announcement that in one week 7532 German prisoners have been taken than appears in its face. They assert that when such a number can be gathered in it indicates that the German troops are becoming worn out or are suffering from abnormal depression.

Sanitary measures to avoid epidemic are being taken on a large scale by the French League. Six thousand communes in France which are seeing the ravages of war will be visited sooner or later. Of this number there are 1199 where hygienic measures will be immediately taken.
Lieutenant Colonel Rousset, the military critic, in reviewing the recent operations, declares it impossible to say how long the war will last or whether Germany still can find enough men to prolong the contest. He believes he is able to affirm, however, that they have made their strongest efforts.
REPORT ALLIES' SUCCESS.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Dispatches to the Daily Mail from various correspondents at different points in the front of operations in Northern France report the continuous success of the allies who have reached within four miles of Ostend. The German attack, it is stated, is mainly in the direction of Leffinghe and Sips.
Three thousand Germans left Ostend for Zebrugge Friday and the reports persist that the Germans have left Ostend.
It is stated that the allies have intercepted a message from Emperor William to the King of Warburg, telling him it is absolutely imperative to capture Ypres before November 1, otherwise it will be necessary for the Germans to withdraw behind the Rhine.
The skillful German general, Von Meyer, was killed at Dixmude Friday.

CREEP TOWARD OSTEND.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—The correspondent of the Times in Northern France, telegraphing under date of Sunday, sums up the situation on the battle-front by stating that the allies are daily creeping on toward Ostend, which is now hardly occupied at all in a military sense. The number of Germans holding it is so negligible, he declares, that if the allies achieve a definite victory in the fight for the river, Ostend will fall unresistingly into their hands.
Ghent Isolated and Communication Cut.
By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Ghent is isolated from communication, according to a dispatch received by the American Government sent by a messenger to St. Louis, Holland, an American correspondent at Antwerp, John J. Connelley, reports that the American consul at Antwerp had ordered the consulate at Ostend closed and had gone to Ghent, where he was safe, but without communication. Officials here infer that the fighting was so fierce in the coast towns that all Americans have withdrawn to the interior.

ROBBED BY PICKPOCKETS.
James Campbell, 244 Elm Avenue, Richmond, reported to the Oakland police that while he was riding on a San Pablo Avenue car in Oakland, pickpockets stole a pocketbook containing $30 and a scarf. There have been several reports during the past week concerning pickpockets on the cars.

STILL MORE TROOPS.
PARIS, Nov. 2.—Alexandre Millerand, the minister of war, has issued an order that all men of the armed service employed or detached, be immediately interested in their corps. Commanders are also required to make monthly reports on certain requirements which are made part of the order.

BRITISH COTTON MILLS SUFFER THROUGH WAR.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Only in cotton spinning is British industry suffering. In addition to supplying the expeditionary force and the new army with clothing and equipment, Russia has placed orders for a million yards of blue and the British woolen mills and shoe factories have other contracts they are as yet unable to place, which could be easily taken by American manufacturing agents, were they in the field.
The greatest wastage in the war has been in the motor vehicle line. Not only are the cars taken to pieces by hand service, but large numbers are destroyed by fire. British manufacturers have not the equipment to supply this wastage.
Russia is not a manufacturing country, and the factories of France have been largely destroyed in the north and in other parts are shut down because of the lack of fuel.

MERCHANTMEN ACCUSED.
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—German merchantmen regularly provide German cruisers in the Pacific with fuel and provisions from Chilean ports and furnish the warships with wireless information, according to the Times correspondent at Santiago, Chile. The correspondent states that the merchantmen obtain "leave to depart from the ports by false declarations regarding their destination to the Chilean authorities."

FIEND BEATS AUTO VICTIM WOMAN TO DEATH

Victim of Heinous Murder Is Found in Blood-Soaked Room.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—The victim of a terrible beating administered by some unknown man, a woman known as Bonnie Edwards, apparently about 25 years of age, was found dead in apartment 44 of the Hamilton Apartments, 499 Jones street, at 11 o'clock this morning. The murderer very evidently deliberately washed his hands of bloodstains after committing the crime and after examining the victim and dead body, the sheets and pillows were crisscrossed with blood. Blood was spattered on the floor and covered the lower portion of the walls.

No one saw the murderer and his identity remains a mystery. According to other occupants of the house, Miss Edwards had been beaten up on two previous occasions since renting an apartment, on October 16.

Detective Nick Barron was detailed to investigate the case. The room bore evidence of a struggle, and beside the bed was found a towel, which it is believed was used by the culprit in wiping his hands.

According to information obtained from the landlady, Miss Edwards had a fight last night with a man whom she struck on the wrist with a cleaver. She was found in a dazed state, following a quarrel with the man and was put to bed at 1 a. m. by the landlady.

EVIDENCE OF STRUGGLE. At that time she was ill, but her condition was not thought serious. This morning when she was found dead, her body was covered from head to foot with black and blue marks, the room was in a terrible state of disorder, bloodstains sprinkled the furniture and evidences of a struggle could be seen through two rooms of the apartment. Very evidently the woman had fought desperately for her life. A curtain was pulled from a window, the bedclothes were tied almost in a knot, furniture was overturned and blood was everywhere.

Miss Edwards' sister, Mrs. Ray Howard, at 808 McAllister street, was able to give but little information. A diary which was found on the bureau, written on an envelope, contained some significant dates. It read:

"Sunday, message.
"Monday, jealousy.
"Tuesday, dark man.
"Wednesday, check.
"Thursday, trip.
"Friday and Saturday were both blank. A check for $48.50 signed by E. J. Gravis was located among her effects.

A piece of the woman's hair, evidently torn from her head in the struggle, was found at the foot of the bed.

Several pictures of men were in the room, but an effort to have them identified by other occupants of the apartments has so far failed.

NO OUTCRY HEARD. No one heard any outcry, but the condition of the body indicated that the murder must have been committed six or eight hours before it was discovered. She came here from Sacramento two years ago.

Chief Deputy Coroner Kelly left the remains untouched until the arrival of Coroner T. B. W. Leland.

Mrs. B. Grant, a friend of Miss Edwards, went to her apartment at 11 o'clock, and, getting no answer, summoned the police. Mrs. Charlotte Robledo, when they entered there, made the gruesome discovery and the police were at once summoned. Mrs. Robledo picked up a bottle of chloroform on a dresser. A partially filled glass of whisky and a glass of beer were on a table.

The check referred to in the diary may have been signed P. J. Travis, instead of Gravis. Another check was found torn up. Ink spattered on the table and floor gave the impression that the check had been signed on compulsion. This theory was strengthened by the fact that the writer failed to indicate the name of the bank on which it was drawn.

ENGINEER ACCUSED. Frank Smith, an engineer, was arrested at Twenty-second and San Pablo avenue and arraigned today before Judge George Samuelson on a charge of passing a fictitious check for $20 on T. M. Harrod, 2201 Grove street. The case was put over for preliminary hearing. The arrest was made by Inspectors Flynn, Kyle, Hodgkins and Dutton.

CHINESE LOTTERY RAIDED. Patrolman Herring raided an alleged Chinese lottery resort at 378 Tenth street last night and arrested Ah Sing and Fong Seng on charges of selling lottery tickets. They were released on $200 bail each. Three white men were arrested as visitors in the place.

BURGLAR RANSACKS HER HOME DURING ABSENCE. A burglar was ransacking the house of Dr. Elizabeth McCleod, 251 Mathers street, late last night, when Mrs. Walker, a guest of Dr. McCleod, returned home. Mrs. Walker thought she heard a sound in the house, and the barking of a neighbor's dog also aroused her suspicions. But the noises ceased, and she did not enter her friend's room. Dr. McCleod discovered when she returned home that the burglar had stolen jewelry valued at $125 from the drawers of her bureau.

The burglar had used a passkey to effect entrance, after making an attempt to break in through the front door. When he was trapped by the return of Mrs. Walker he apparently flung the bedroom window from the inside and jumped out, making his escape.

P. J. Kollch, 1937 Chestnut street, reported that a burglar entered the basement of his home and stole a gallon of whisky, a gallon of wine, two pounds of butter, one chicken, six quarts and two pounds of cheese.

Knocked from his bicycle by a party of alleged joy riders and rendered unconscious, George Rogers, brother of Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers, was left lying in the street last night at Twentieth and San Pablo until persons who had witnessed the collision called assistance and had him removed to the emergency hospital. The crowd in the speeding auto did not stop after the accident, but calling back, "Better hurry to the hospital, Tony," sped up their car and disappeared.

Persons nearby who obtained the number of the automobile have reported the matter to the police and arrests are expected today.

Rogers was returning from work to his home at 557 Dutton avenue, along San Pablo avenue, when the automobile swung out of Twentieth street at a high rate of speed and ran him down in a reckless manner. The victim, narrowly escaping death, sustained severe lacerations of his scalp and arms, 10 stitches being required on his forehead. He was removed to his home.

MUST CONSERVE CONVENTION FUND. Council Not to Aid the Local Meetings; Will Save the Money for 1915.

The city council adopted the policy in connection with appropriations from the entertainment fund that no appropriations will be made for local conventions. In order that the money may be saved to provide for the big international conventions of 1915.

The Oakland Real Estate Association asked an appropriation of $250 for the entertainment for the California State Realty Federation, November 19 to 21. This application was referred to Mayor Mott, who is a realty man. Mayor Mott reported unfavorably and explained that the fund should be conserved for the big conventions of California, which will be held in this city in 1915 and the entertainment fund should be carefully conserved to meet the demands of these conventions which will be of great value to Oakland. They will attract a very large number of visitors from outside the state.

It seems to me that in view of these conditions, the city should give all its attention to the importance of making provisions for these large assemblies from abroad. The council should meet demands for the entertainment of local organizations or those from nearby territory, but be in danger of exhausting our resources.

"Personally I should be glad to see my way clear to favor this appropriation but in view of the reason set forth here, I do not think it would be advisable to do so. Yours very truly,
"FRANK K. MOTT."

BURGLAR RANSACKS HER HOME DURING ABSENCE. A burglar was ransacking the house of Dr. Elizabeth McCleod, 251 Mathers street, late last night, when Mrs. Walker, a guest of Dr. McCleod, returned home. # FREDERICKS TO WIND UP HIS POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

Candidate to Hold Series of Meetings in Los Angeles This Evening

One of the most vigorous political campaigns ever conducted in California ended tonight. The battle of the ballots ends tomorrow. Captain John D. Fredericks winds up in his home town of Los Angeles this evening, where a series of meetings will be held. Hiram Johnson, who was defeated by Fredericks in the recent election, will be present at a meeting in San Francisco, John B. Curtin will be present in San Francisco in a "rubberneck" wagon and will, at the same time, be making a whirlwind tour in Nevada county, his home, and various other places, and holding meetings in their respective sections.

Captain Fredericks rested yesterday from the arduous work in which he has been engaged for a strenuous day and evening today. Los Angeles plans a great demonstration on his behalf, and great southern cities and towns will join in the demonstration. Fredericks will be in the city in the evening, and will be in the city in the morning. The members of the several county committees will be in the city in the evening, and will be in the city in the morning. The members of the several county committees will be in the city in the evening, and will be in the city in the morning.

STOCK YARDS QUARANTINED IN CHICAGO

Action of United States Medical Bureau Ties Up Great Industry.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A sensational order closing the Union Stock Yards because of the hoof and mouth disease threat but a few hours today, when it was modified to an extent which took all the sensationalism out of it. S. E. Bennett of the Bureau of Animal Industry in the forenoon placed a complete quarantine on the stock yards. This afternoon, however, he emerged from a conference and announced that the order was rescinded and that the only embargo would be on the re-shipment of live cattle from here. Live stock may be shipped here, but it must be slaughtered in this market, so that no animal possibly infected can spread the malady further.

The modification of the order also relieves the situation throughout Illinois, including East St. Louis.

TO ISSUE ORDER. WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—An order quarantining Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania against cattle shipments to guard against foot and mouth disease was prepared at the Department of Agriculture today and officials said it would be issued tonight.

The order also restricts shipments in Ohio, for purposes of observation. Later the order quarantining the four states was signed and issued at the Department of Agriculture.

Lloyds Insure Against Italy Declaring War

By Associated Press. LONDON, Nov. 2, 2:24 p. m.—A premium of 60 guineas per cent was paid at Lloyds today to insure against a declaration of war by Italy on one of the great powers before the end of November. This high rate indicates that the underwriters regard the risk as considerable.

ENDORSES KNOWLAND FOR U. S. SENATORSHIP

To the voters of Alameda County: On the eve of one of the most important elections that has ever taken place in this state, it is quite imperative that we should carefully consider the candidates for United States Senator.

It is almost a certainty that the new congress, both Senate and House of Representatives, will be largely Republican. The whole nation is anticipating this and hoping for it, and California must not be a renegade.

With the Senate and the House Republican, the state of California would be without a Republican delegation. If Henry should be elected to the great office of United States Senator, he would immediately resign and be sworn in as a member of the Senate.

TWO SUPERVISORS SHOULD BE RETURNED TO OFFICE

Supervisors W. B. Bridge and Joseph M. Kelley of Second and Third districts, respectively, are entitled to reelection because of the records they have made in the conduct of their positions during their incumbencies. Both have stood for the improvement of highways and bridges, so important in aiding the farmers to bring their produce to the consuming centers.

In every act connected with their administration of the affairs of Alameda county these two gentlemen have acted for the best interests of the residents and taxpayers and have made records that are being universally commended by all those who know and understand the workings of the county board.

It is for the reasons herein set out that a large majority of the voters of the Second and Third districts are in favor of the reelection of Mr. Bridge and Mr. Kelley determined to elect them by an emphatic majority and continue in office two of the most capable men Alameda county has ever had in the position of supervisors.

PROHIBITION ORATOR IS SHOUTED DOWN BY MOB

The Rev. Wilmer E. Coffman of the Methodist church, who was arrested a few days ago and later released for street speaking, and who later obtained a permit from the chief of police, held a meeting last night at Eleventh and Broadway, but found it difficult to speak, as the crowd insisted upon singing and shouting as he talked. Dr. Coffman was talking in favor of prohibition. The disturbance reached a point where Lieutenant Woods was forced to send a squad of police to preserve order. Lieutenant Woods has recommended that Rev. Coffman's permit be withdrawn.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Adam Napp was arrested and booked at the City Prison today for assault as the result of the shooting of Frank George, who received a bullet wound in the ankle in the room occupied by both men at 24 Fourth street. Dr. W. C. Eldersmiller notified the detective department that a man was applying for treatment at his office under mysterious circumstances. When George was interviewed he declared that Napp was taking out a revolver to show him when it caught in his pocket and went off. The police officers were not satisfied and took Napp into custody.

CHARGES OF FOSS ARE FOUND FALSE

Calls Dr. Wills "a Low-lived Dog" Because He Is for Another Candidate.

A spirited quarrel, in which the lie was passed between Dr. C. A. Wills, superintendent of the County Infirmary, and Supervisor Fred Foss, of Berkeley, candidate for the office of county treasurer, and in which Foss called Wills a "dirty low-lived dog," took place this morning in the rooms of the board of supervisors, when Foss accused Wills of ordering sample ballots marked for old women in the infirmary, favoring M. J. Kelly, Foss's opponent, and Wills hotly denied the charge. Wills declares that he is, and always has been, openly for Kelly, whom he believes to be the better man. "I have not marked any ballots, however," declared Wills, "and Foss has simply lost his head. If he can get me he's welcome to it. I am not worrying about losing the job."

The quarrel occurred when Wills introduced Foss to Miss Ella Tinsley, formerly of Adler's Sanitarium at San Francisco, whom Wills has recommended as head nurse at the hospital in the place of Miss Margaret Burke, who has accepted another position.

"I won't take your commendation," shouted Foss, "and I don't want to meet your friends. You've had ballots marked for Mike Kelly and I won't stand for it. There's one man in the county I want to get, and that's Dr. Wills. I'll have you know that, I'm going to fight."

"I had no ballots marked. I am for Mr. Kelly because I think he's the better man, and I'm honest about it. I will stand by that, and I am not worrying about my job," declared Wills.

Foss then walked over to the superintendent's desk.

"Wills is a dirty low-lived dog," he announced, "and I will fight him from now on."

He then accosted Supervisors Mullins and Bridge in the anteroom, telling them of his troubles.

"Don't be foolish," admonished Mullins. "There are several people out there doing politics for you, and I don't hear you making a bit about it."

"Well," said Foss, "I never asked them to."

"No, but you're not objecting," retorted Mullins. "You have been out there yourself more in the past two months than any time in the year yourself."

"Well, I was investigating," said Foss. "I have a new machine and can get out there easier."

"Investigating nothing!" said Mullins. "You were doing politics."

"Wait a while and see if I was investigating," said Foss.

"Well," said Mullins, "we'll find that you won't hurt any of your friends out there. It is politics. I don't blame you. But don't try to start a fuss if the rule works both ways."

"I think Dr. Wills was ill-advised but within his rights," said Supervisor Bridge. "There is lots of talk about

Your cold will break and all grippe misery end after taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasal discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffy! Quit blowing and sniffling! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

OSTEOPATHS OPPOSED
TO AMENDMENT NO. 46

It has been represented that the osteopaths of California are in favor of No. 46. Thus we wish to emphasize that nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

Our osteopathic college in California has a four years' course with high school requirements, and in addition we support a research institute.

No. 46 means that any one who claims to have practiced any sort of healing art for six months prior to November 3 shall be issued a certificate irrespective of the fact that he may have no education, no professional training, and if he possesses a diploma it is usually a short course or mail order grade.

No. 46 would give these and a host of others with little or no qualification the right to call themselves "doctors," treat all diseases and sign birth and death certificates.

Every man who has any reasonable training already has opportunity to take a drugless examination in this state.

If you would protect yourself or child from doctors who may never have been inside a college of any sort vote "No" on No. 46.

NATION IS CONCERNED
IN HISTORIC BY-ELECTION

United States Senators to Be Chosen by Popular Vote for First Time

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—On the eve of a Congressional election it became known today that men close to President Wilson are working on the understanding that he will be a candidate in 1916, despite his own silence on the subject, and that they have begun preparations for the campaign.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Chief interest in the election tomorrow centers on the struggle for the control of the next Congress, heightened by the fact that all successful candidates for the senate, as well as the house, will be chosen by direct popular vote. The fact that thirty-one states will elect senators makes the contests the real inauguration of a new departure in government.

A careful analysis of the situation in the different states would seem to indicate that the present small Democratic majority of five in the senate is a safe one, as the Republicans would have to make a gain of six to get control, and there are only seven states outside of the "solid South" where present Democratic seats are being defended. These states are Colorado, Oklahoma, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, Nevada and Oregon.

Of hardly less interest are the contests over state tickets. Governors are to be elected in twenty-nine states, and some of the campaigns, notably those in New York and Pennsylvania, have been waged with much bitterness.

Senatorial elections will be held in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Kansas, Maryland, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin.

Governors will be elected in Alabama, Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin.

Senators seeking re-election are Smith of Arizona, Clarke of Arkansas, Thomas of Colorado, Brandegee of Connecticut, Fletcher of Florida, Smith of Georgia, Brady of Idaho, Sherman of Iowa, Shirley of Kentucky, for the remainder of the present term; Smith of Maryland, Stone of Missouri, Newlands of Nevada, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Overman of North Carolina, Gronna of North Dakota, Gore of Ohio, Chamberlain of Oregon, and Francis of Pennsylvania. Smith of South Carolina, Smoot of Utah, Dillingham of Vermont and Jones of Washington.

State campaigns in several instances have been waged so keenly as to subordinate the campaign for Congress. This is particularly true of New York, where Governor Glynn's fight for re-election is being opposed by District Attorney Charles S. Whitman of New York city, the Republican candidate; former State Senator Frederick M. Davenport, who holds the Progressive ticket; and former Governor William Sulzer, nominee of the Prohibition and American parties. Former President Roosevelt has concentrated his energies on New York and Pennsylvania, making few distant campaign trips.

The picturesque figure of "Uncle Joe" Cannon, Illinois, former Speaker of the House, has again emerged into public view, by reason of his candidacy for another term in Congress.

In the same state ex-Congressman William B. McKinley, who was President Taft's campaign manager in 1912, is attempting to do so.

PORTLAND, Nov. 2.—The campaign of the various candidates for election Oregon tomorrow was the eve of its climax tonight, with the result in several cases difficult to forecast.

The Democratic supporters claim that George E. Chamberlain's previous victories in running for office will be duplicated again by his re-election as United States senator. Republicans express equal confidence for the election of R. A. Booth. William Hanley is the one Progressive who is considered a factor among any of the principal contestants, but it is uncertain whether he will draw most of his strength from Booth or Chamberlain.

In the First Congressional district Frederick Hollister, Democrat, has developed considerable strength, but Republicans are confident Representative William C. Hawley will be re-elected. In the Second district Representative N. J. Shattuck, Republican, seems to hold the advantage. In the Third district an uncertain contest is being waged between C. N. McArthur, Republican; A. F.

HELEN, Mont. Nov. 2.—Montana Democrats, basing their claims upon the popularity of President Wilson, predict the re-election at the polls Tuesday of Congressman Stout and Evans, while the Republican organization asserts that Fletcher Maddox and Washington J. McCormick, the Republican candidates for Congress, will be elected.

Schween of Pleasanton, secretary; Robert Tremaine of San Jose, corresponding secretary; Edward R. Harder of San Jose, treasurer; Neal McCarthy of San Jose, sergeant-at-arms; and Andrew Ginnocchio of San Francisco, athletic manager.

WOMAN AND YOUTH
CAPTURE BURGLARS

Exciting Chase Through the Streets Leads to Thieves' Arrest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Escaping a number of shots with two burglars who had entered his father's home, Ross Dunnigan, the 17-year-old son of John S. Dunnigan, clerk of the board of supervisors of San Francisco, last night, with Mrs. J. Ross Jackson, his grandmother, succeeded in capturing one of them.

The second burglar, accompanied by a chase of several blocks, while Mrs. Jackson pursued the other man down the back stairs, fired several shots at him and chased him over a back fence, where a crowd surrounded him.

Mrs. Dunnigan, accompanied by her son and her mother, returned home from church about 8 o'clock to find that the front door knob had been pulled off. With considerable difficulty they opened the door and were taken together with Ross Dunnigan's room they were confronted by two masked men, who leveled pistols at them.

One of the burglars started down the front stairs with Dunnigan after him, both firing rapidly. Dunnigan chased his man to Hayes and Baker streets and there cornered him in a vacant lot, the fugitive's ammunition being exhausted.

In the meantime Mrs. Jackson pursued the second burglar down the back stairs. In the kitchen he turned and fired two shots at her, then dashed out the back door. Not frightened by the bullets tearing through her skirts, Mrs. Jackson kept after the man until he ran into some citizens attracted by the shooting.

After a struggle the burglar was finally subdued by William McHugh, a former detective, who came up with a revolver. The police took the man to the Richmond Station, incidentally arresting McHugh also for impersonating an officer.

The burglar caught by Ross Dunnigan gave the name of George Campbell, 35, a farmer. On his left wrist were tattooed the initials "P. P." The second burglar, whose name was Frank Woods, 25 years old, a jeweler, in the pockets of the two were found jewelry belonging to Mrs. Dunnigan valued at about $300.

Farm Boys Received by President Wilson
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—President Wilson today received 25 high school agricultural club winners from California. Mr. Wilson congratulated the farm boys on their achievements.

States Senator Albert D. Cummins' re-election Tuesday, and the managers of Congressman Maurice Connolly equally certain the voters will support the policies of President Wilson in electing the "Fugate" men, one of the most rigorous campaigns ever waged in Iowa is closed tonight. A few "eleventh hour" speeches by candidates will be delivered tomorrow in various cities of the State.

SCHOOL DIRECTOR BOYLE
HOLDS ASHLAND ADDRESS

Urges Alameda Voters to Make No Mistake in Electing a County Clerk

When School Director Harry Boyle addressed the voters at Ashland, near San Leandro, there was not a vacant seat in Rose Hall.

"The campaign is drawing to a close," said Harry Boyle, "and I am satisfied that the people of Alameda county are not going to make any mistakes. Particularly must we not make a mistake in electing a county clerk. Here is an office that has been thoroughly demoralized.

But coming right down to that condemnable report of the grand jury just issued, what more could be needed to convince voters of their duty? It would be a civic crime to vote for a man who has confessed that he has neglected his office year after year and who has tolerated in his only to the end of his term because of his solemn promise given to the grand jury months ago that he was not to be a candidate again. Mr. Cook confessed that if he had done the fair thing to the public he would have resigned. Think of it—a public official telling under oath that he had neglected his office till it was not right for him to longer remain in office—and then asking for re-election.

ABSENT SIX MONTHS.
Then again—think of a deputy county clerk being absent from his duties for six months selling peanuts and popcorn at baseball parks, and you taxpayers paying him $100 per month. Now what does the grand jury say about this? I will read one paragraph from their report. This clipping is from THE TRIBUNE of a week ago.

We also thoroughly and completely investigated the complaint that Deputy County Clerk George B. Keefe was not devoting any of his time to the duties of his office.

"We found that this was very largely true; that Mr. Keefe was absent from the office of the county clerk from about the 1st of May or June, 1913, until some time in December, 1913, under full pay from the county, and that Mr. Keefe was absent from the knowledge and permission of Mr. Cook and that he was devoting most of his time, during that period, to the conduct of a concession at the Oakland Baseball Park."

NEGLECT OF DUTY.
"What do you think of that? What can you think of it? You pay your county clerk $400 per year and Mr. J. P. Cook testifies under oath that 'I was in my office very little in 1913.' A whole year, and Cook swears that he gave you very little for your money. And now he comes in and asks you to keep him in office for another four years. After admitting that you get very little from him for one term for $16,000, he has the effrontery to ask for another term and another $16,000."

"But, fortunately, the remedy is at hand. Next Tuesday you will have the chance to bring about a much-needed change. There is a man's name on the ballot for County Clerk who is one of the cleanest living, most competent officials who ever served the public. I refer to George E. Gross. In all the years Gross has been a public servant there has never been any but words of praise for him. To know this splendid type of man and official is to respect and admire him in his public and private life. George Gross is all that a man should be. He has earned the right to ask your support for his election as County Clerk. Gross is the man needed to restore public confidence in the office of County Clerk."

"Should Mr. Gross not be elected by a large majority it will mean that we do not want faithful servants; it will mean that we are indifferent to the good opinion of the rest of the state and that we are ready to reward neglect and unfaithfulness. We have not yet reached that point, and we never will."

"Let George Gross and rehabilitation the fair name of the county."

Alameda County, Stand by Your Champion!

There are many reasons why Hon. Joseph R. Knowland should be given an overwhelming vote at the election tomorrow by citizens of Alameda county for the office of United States Senator. For seventeen years Mr. Knowland has served this county in the capacity of a legislator. Seven of these years were spent in the legislative Assembly and the State Senate, and ten in the lower House of Congress, where he has been and is a commanding figure.

In his capacity of legislator he made a record that attracted favorable attention on the part of his constituents and he was elevated to a seat in the House of Representatives at Washington, where he has constantly and tirelessly worked for the benefit of his district and state regardless of partisanship of narrow character. He has been true to every trust reposed in him and has made a record that cannot be successfully challenged. He has stood for and advocated that sort of legislation that has made for the material advancement of Alameda county and California generally.

In his advocacy of measures that benefit the state and nation equally, Joseph R. Knowland has known no dividing line between Republicans, Democrats, Progressives or members of other parties, but has consistently advocated legislation of a character to benefit all people, regardless of politics.

His services in Congress have been invaluable to his district and the state generally. He has secured millions for Oakland's harbor and brought about measures for its still further improvement. He has brought public buildings to Berkeley and Alameda. He has advocated many measures that have redounded to the material advancement of his entire district. To his efforts are due the fact that Mare Island's navy yard was enabled to engage in the construction of great ships and to successfully launch two of the greatest vessels of their class afloat, bringing hundreds of thousands of dollars to California which otherwise would have been spent in eastern yards.

Hon. Joseph R. Knowland has aided other sections of the state and from San Pedro to Humboldt he is known as the friend of improvement. He has assisted San Francisco, Los Angeles, Eureka and other great centers in their efforts to improve commerce and has never failed to take a stand for the best interests of every part of California. He had much to do with locating the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco. He led the fight in Congress for our neighboring city.

On moral questions he has been right every time. He opposed child labor and worked for the abolition of white slavery. He has made a record in Congress, as in every other walk of life, that is unassailable.

HON. JOSEPH R. KNOWLAND.

BECAUSE OF THE ABILITY HE HAS MANIFESTED WHEREVER HE HAS BEEN PLACED AND BECAUSE OF THE SPLENDID SERVICES HE HAS RENDERED TO HIS DISTRICT AND TO HIS STATE. HE HAS BEEN CALLED UPON BY THE PEOPLE TO MAKE THE RACE FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP.

The people have reviewed his career of splendid service and excellent statesmanship, have seen his steady advance from the grade of a new member of the lower house to one of its leaders and have decided that he shall be promoted to a larger sphere of usefulness; that he shall be made a member of the superior body of Congress, there to continue his work on behalf of all the citizens of this commonwealth.

This action is in line with that of the citizens of Alameda county in the past. He was first elected to the legislative Assembly and then re-elected. He made good and was sent to the State Senate. His commanding ability suggested him as a candidate for Congress from this district and he was elected to that office. He has been returned continuously at every election since, and while weak efforts have been made to defeat him, he has always been triumphantly elected, and at the last contest defeated his opponent by 12,000 majority.

Alameda county has always shown a profound regard for Hon. Joseph R. Knowland and Alameda county will once more display that sentiment tomorrow. But Alameda county ought not to simply give him the vote of his own party, BUT AS A MATTER OF LOCAL PRIDE AND PATRIOTIC DUTY, EVERY CITIZEN OF ALAMEDA COUNTY SHOULD CAST A BALLOT FOR HIM FOR THE IMPORTANT OFFICE FOR WHICH HE HAS BEEN NOMINATED.

Mr. Knowland has a record that is clean and unimpeachable. He has ability that is superior in character and through which this county has acquired national fame. He has stood for everything that has made for the moral and material progress of his district, his state and the nation and against everything calculated to work against this sort of advancement. He has been tried in grave emergencies and has always made good. His conduct has been approved by a mighty majority of his fellow citizens who have selected him as the candidate for the United States Senate, and it is due to him and to the people of his home county that he shall be given practically the unanimous endorsement of its electors.

MR. KNOWLAND HAS LIVED IN THIS COUNTY ALL HIS LIFE. HE WAS BORN HERE, EDUCATED HERE AND HIS BUSINESS INTERESTS ARE ALL HERE. HE IS KNOWN TO EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN THIS COUNTY AS A STERLING, UPRIGHT CITIZEN. A CLEAN MAN, AN ABLE ADVOCATE OF THAT WHICH IS BEST FOR ALL MEN AND ALL WOMEN ALIKE, AND BECAUSE OF THE MAGNIFICENT SERVICES HE HAS RENDERED IN THE PAST AND BECAUSE OF THE MAGNIFICENT SERVICE HE WILL RENDER IN THE FUTURE, ALAMEDA COUNTY OWES IT TO HERSELF TO STAND BY HER FAVORED SON AND MAKE HIS MAJORITY HERE NOT LESS THAN 20,000.

John D. Fredericks.

On the eve of the election it is evident that the men and women voters of California, Republicans en masse and hundreds and thousands of electors of other parties are rallying to the support of Captain John D. Fredericks, the Republican nominee for governor.

Captain Fredericks is a national figure. He is a man of sound mind and keen perception, an advocate of progress, a believer in economy, fearless in the performance of his duty, true to every trust.

He has made a dignified and forceful campaign. He has discussed the issues confronting the people calmly and without malice. He has urged sane legislation as a means of inviting capital to come here and develop the many resources of California, instead of erratic enactments that are keeping it away, and under which corporate investment has fallen off more than $876,000,000 during the four years of the present administration.

He is pledged to economy in state expenses and in stopping extravagance in all departments.

He stands on the platform of his party which declares for a continuance of the Railroad Commission, given California by the Republican party, and its divorce from politics; for the Workmen's Compensation Law, for the retention of the Direct Primary, when simplified so as to reduce the burden of expense to the State and the individual, and for other measures that are calculated to benefit the entire people of this commonwealth.

His election means all that is good; it means a restoration of confidence and consequent improvement in business.

The people have confidence in Captain Fredericks. They have noted his conduct in the past, his fearless methods in conducting the office of District Attorney of Los Angeles county, which he has filled for so many years to the satisfaction of the electorate. He is known as a sterling citizen and an honest man, an individual who stands for high ideals in private life and in the home and propose to elect him by an overwhelming plurality.

It is the duty of every Republican in Alameda county to cast a vote for Captain Fredericks to the end that his triumph shall be magnificent in its proportion and emphatic in its effect. He is entitled to this support and the national significance of the campaign in this state demands such action. California must be returned to the Republican column and allied with her sister states who believe in protection, progress and prosperity. A vote for Captain Fredericks is a vote to restore those conditions.

Mrs. Davidson.

The only woman running for office on the State ticket is Mrs. N. E. Davidson, of Hanford, who is a candidate for the position of State Superintendent of Public Instruction. But not on account of that fact alone should she be voted for, although it is only fair that women should be given recognition. Mrs. Davidson, however, possesses all the qualifications that the office demands. She is an educator of marked ability and as County Superintendent of Schools in her own county has made a record for efficiency and economy that is so striking that when she presented herself as a candidate for the nomination, the people of the state recognized it at once and voted her on the ballot.

Mrs. Davidson should be elected and a vote in her behalf is a vote for efficiency in school work, economy in its administration and a higher standard of excellence.

It is all right to load ships with toys for Belgian children, but some way we incline to believe that a can of pork and beans will be more acceptable to the tots over there than dolls.

Queen Victoria of Spain has given birth to her sixth child, the last prince having been born on her twenty-seventh birthday. No race suicide for Victoria.

It is related that the Congress recently adjourned holds the endurance record. How about the people?

Support These Candidates Tomorrow.

Legislative candidates deserving of support at the election tomorrow at the hands of Republican voters of the county are George J. Hans, of Oakland, candidate for re-election to the state senate from the Fourteenth district; Chester H. Hatch of Centerville, Republican nominee for the assembly from the Thirty-fourth district; Paul J. Americh of Alameda, candidate from the Thirty-fifth; W. W. Cribbins of Oakland, candidate from the Thirty-sixth; Montell Taylor of Oakland, candidate from the Thirty-seventh, and Louis Schaffer of Oakland, candidate from the Thirty-eighth. These gentlemen are all straight Republicans, believers in Republican policies, business legislation, economy of administration and revival of industry. They are none of them "pussy footers," all stand squarely upon a platform of Republican policies and are deserving of general support and should be elected.

For non-partisan offices George W. Frick, candidate for county superintendent of schools, merits general endorsement. He is running on a record of achievement while his opponent is a candidate on a platform of prettily phrased promise. The incumbent, Mr. Frick, points to efficiency and results as an argument, his opponent to something that might happen.

George Gross should be elected county clerk. He is deserving, competent, efficient, tried, true. He will bring to the office a training and experience that the place demands. He has made a splendid record as city auditor of Oakland and as county clerk will duplicate it. The office needs George E. Gross worse than George E. Gross needs the office, and the voters of Alameda county understand it.

E. F. Garrison has made such a splendid record for efficiency in the office of county auditor there should be no hesitation on the part of any voter in declaring for his re-election.

Endorsed by practically every banker and business man in Alameda county and having behind him the united support of the organized toiler as well as other substantial citizens, M. J. Kelly will be re-elected county treasurer as he should be. Mr. Kelly has made a splendid record in the position. He has been commended by the best financial experts of the State for his methods and has kept the affairs of his office in such shape that not the slightest criticism has ever been raised against him.

C. F. Horner, candidate for assessor, merits re-election because he has the ability and the understanding requisite in a candidate for the office. He is thorough, knows property values in this county better than any other resident, is sound in judgment, no faddist and will perform the duties of the place according to law. The people of this county understand Mr. Horner and will re-elect him on his record.

Dr. Charles L. Tisdale, coroner, who seeks re-election, is being supported by thousands of men and women who know of the splendid record he has made in that office because of his qualifications to fill it. Dr. Tisdale is a physician of eminence, who understands the duties of the place, who has conducted its affairs with an ability second to no man who has filled the office here or elsewhere. The office of coroner should be filled by a physician for reasons that are obvious and that fact is recognized all over the country, for the great municipalities invariably elect physicians to perform such duties. Because of his record and his fitness, Dr. Tisdale should be chosen by a large majority.

Do Not Forget Proposition No. 19.

Proposition No. 19, "The Oakland Amendment," on the ballot should receive the vote of every citizen of Alameda county, regardless of party affiliations. It is the city and consolidation agreement made by the cities of Los Angeles, Oakland and San Francisco, and by the commercial bodies of all three supported. Proposition 21, the original plan that was abandoned, is still on the ballot, and should be defeated. Vote "Yes" on Proposition No. 19, and "No" on Proposition No. 21.

George H. Derrick.

For Congress to succeed Hon. Joseph R. Knowland the Republicans of Alameda county have nominated George H. Derrick, a thorough believer in the policies of that party, under which the country has grown great. He is a man of character and standing and has ability to make himself a factor in securing legislation.

He will be of material assistance in the lower house with the largely increased Republican delegation which will be returned at the election tomorrow in bringing back to the country that degree of business prosperity it temporarily forfeited when it gave control of government to the Democratic party.

His opponent represents an organization that is dying and will not have a dozen members in the next house. He would be able to accomplish nothing and would be heard only by suffrage. This is a government by political parties and the lone member has little effect on the mass.

A vote for George H. Derrick is a vote for a man who can do things and will do them. A vote for George H. Derrick means a vote for a man who believes in business legislation and the restoration of prosperity.

Vote "Yes" on Proposition No. 17.

Proposition No. 17 on the ballot is an amendment to the constitution of the State by which Alameda county can incur a bonded indebtedness not to exceed $1,000,000 in five per cent bonds to enable it to contribute to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. It should be adopted. Alameda county wants to assist the great display across the bay which will bring so many people to this coast next year and through which the cities on the east shore will derive so much benefit. Vote "Yes" on Proposition 17.

Frederick S. Stratton

Candidate for Justice of the
Appellate Court
Short Term

Carried entire district and Alameda county by large pluralities at primary election, stands No. 1.

An Alameda county man, born in Oakland and residing here all his life.

THE TRIBUNE has from time to time editorially set forth the superior claims and qualifications of Mr. Stratton for Justice of the Appellate Court. This journal would now add the above as its final word on behalf of the man from our own county, and urge with all the vigor at its command the assured election of Mr. Stratton.

Qualifications—The late Chief Justice William H. Beatty, knowing equally well both of the aspirants, made, just before his death, a solemn oath in writing, now on file with the Secretary of State, declaring that Mr. Stratton is my choice and that I will support no other candidate for this office.

FREDERICK S. STRATTON.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Little Hall was filled with the intelligence, brawn and muscle of the starward fifth ward last evening to listen to the presentation of the great and overwhelming shadow of protection, expressed in vivid and dramatic terms by the speakers. The meeting was called to order by E. Armstrong. Upon the platform were Hon. John Tule, W. H. Friend, Judge Haver, J. W. C. Gaskill, J. L. Chapman, L. G. Lee, A. P. Harmon, Peter Thompson, Francis Cullen, George H. Wheaton, Joseph Barr, James Warner and a host of other prominent citizens. Among those who spoke were Hon. S. M. Shattuck and Thomas Pearson, who concluded with the peroration of a Republican, and know no surrender of principle.

Several celebrations of Halloween were held at Berkeley last night. The Social Guild of West Berkeley gave a dance at Sutter Hall, the Tuesday O'Clock Club of South Berkeley gave a social dance, and the young ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a social at Arroyo Hall.

OPPONENTS OF JOS. R. KNOWLAND OLD VOLCANO AGAIN IN ACTION

OAKLAND ENQUIRER ON JOS. R. KNOWLAND

What the Tribune's Contemporary Had to Say About the Candidate for United States Senate

The Oakland Enquirer has been opposing Hon. Joseph R. Knowland for United States Senator and supporting the cause of Francis J. Heney. In order to show what the Enquirer really thinks of Mr. Knowland we reprint an editorial from our contemporary as follows:

(From Oakland Enquirer November 2, 1912.)

"The Enquirer has frequently taken exception to Congressman Knowland's affiliations and has unhesitatingly and forcibly expressed these exceptions. The Enquirer has also frequently given praise to Congressman Knowland's attitude on legislation bearing directly on the welfare of this coast. It now advocates his return to Congress on the broad ground that Knowland's re-election will prove more beneficial to his district as well as the State at large than the election of Wilson.

"It is admitted by all conversant with public affairs that Knowland has done great good, and has accomplished splendid results for this coast during his years in Congress. And there is room for the belief that as he stands so firmly for constructive and progressive legislation, his political judgment might clear sufficiently in the near future to result in his being listed, not only by thought and deed, but in name and with the Progressive party which is championed by the Enquirer. But that is neither here nor there. In his case this paper is putting aside political sentiment and alone considers the welfare of the community. So far as political affiliations are concerned, however, those of Congressman Knowland in the past are preferable to those of his opponent in the Congressional race.

"Congressman Knowland, among his other accomplishments, voted for the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

"He made the fight in the interests of American shipping, securing for California and the Pacific Coast free tolls for American ships in the coastwise trade, and an adoption of an amendment to the canal bill to prevent railroad domination of this waterway, thus insuring the fullest possible benefits to the shippers and consumers of California.

"He has secured $1,263,203 for Oakland harbor, and obtained two government surveys therefor.

"Public buildings have been obtained for Berkeley and Alameda.

"He has fought white slavery.

Congressman Knowland is now completing his fifth term, and ranks as number two among the California delegation in the House in point of continuous service."

PITTMAN IS LA FOLLETTE OUT FOR SPORT IS HENEY'S MAN

An Interesting Story About the Senator Who Is Supporting Phelan.

Recently Senator Key Pittman of Nevada was imported to San Francisco to make a speech for James D. Phelan, Democratic candidate for United States senator. Pittman suggested that if Phelan was elected he would be all right in the Senate. Phelan said he liked Pittman's Democratic politics and he liked the man. The following dispatch is interesting as showing the kind of politicians opposing Hon. Joseph R. Knowland:

(Special Dispatch.)

"RENO, Nev., Oct. 30.—After a night of revelry, United States Senator Key Pittman ended his celebration today by being knocked to the sidewalk by Lytton Stoddard, a Petaluma (Cal.) business man. Stoddard, a former Reno resident, immediately searched Pittman for a weapon; and on finding that the senator was not armed, permitted him to go on his way.

"Pittman, during his rampage, attacked seven persons and escaped without injury until he met Stoddard. Early this morning, at a bathing resort near Reno, Pittman struck Zeb Ray, a prominent Democrat. Ray, however, did not strike back, but devoted his efforts toward inducing the senator to retire.

"Returning to Reno and visiting the Democratic headquarters, Pittman struck A. B. Gray, United States marshal for Nevada, and likewise landed a blow on the face of W. E. Sharon, brother-in-law of Senator Newlands. Returning to the lobby of the hotel where the headquarters were situated, Pittman remarked: 'Well, I have cleaned them all up in the headquarters.' Pittman's next victim was P. A. McCarran, member of the Nevada Supreme Court. McCarran was standing on a street corner when Pittman approached.

"The senator removed a cigar from his mouth and wiped it on the face of McCarran, and followed this action by striking the justice. Prior to this attack, it is claimed, Pittman struck Clay Tallman, commissioner of the general land office at Washington.

"Deputy Sheriff Lee Updike, who was attempting to induce Pittman to return to his hotel was the next victim. Then came H. Foster, a prominent Republican, who was slapped on the face.

"The celebration ended when Pittman approached Stoddard, and, without a word, struck the Petaluma man on the face. Stoddard retaliated with a right swing to the jaw, and Pittman fell to the sidewalk. 'That is enough,' remarked Pittman, and Stoddard, after making a search for a weapon, permitted friends to lead Pittman back to his hotel. No arrests were made."

OLD VOLCANO AGAIN IN ACTION

Inhabitants in Panic for Fear of Another Great Holocaust.

By Associated Press.

NAPLES, via London, Nov. 2.—Mount Vesuvius is again in eruption and the inhabitants in its vicinity have become greatly alarmed. On Sunday special prayers were made and processions of people went to favored shrines as a repetition of the disaster of 1906 is feared.

The activity of the volcano first became manifest by deep detonations and rumblings. This was followed by a gigantic column of smoke and soon thereafter an abundant eruption of lava began.

The last serious eruption of Mount Vesuvius occurred in the spring of 1906. Several villages were destroyed and the property loss was estimated at $20,000,000. About 500 persons were killed and 50,000 were rendered homeless. Many nations, especially the United States, sent aid to the sufferers.

There have been several eruptions since 1906, but all were of a minor character and no serious losses resulted.

HAYWARD "SPEED COPS" TO BE AUTOISTS' TENDR

HAYWARD, Nov. 2.—Zealous speed cops on twin cylinder racing "bikes," who thought nothing of chasing their quarry at 60 miles an hour, used to be the terror of speeding riders on Hayward's highways. Now Marshal Charles Schilling is left without a single deputy to round up motor "scorchers." As the marshal has only a horse and rig, he is apprehensive in case motorists should be having things pretty much their own way, especially since complaints of speeding and of the noise caused by open mufflers have been made lately by the residents.

District Attorney W. H. L. Hyman has been asked to enforce the state vehicle ordinance in this city in regard to speeding and open mufflers, as the result of a discussion of the matter by the Chamber of Commerce. This will mean that the county speed cop will keep a lookout for motor offenders within the city boundaries.

TOMATO SEASON ENDS.

SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 2.—The tomato season is practically over here although the local cannery is still using large quantities, the last of an unusually large crop. About a two-thirds force of the cannery employees are engaged in preserving the last consignment for the season. The cannery has had an exceptionally busy time since early summer, all the crops with the exception of chervils being extra large.

Fair Victim Dies in Ambulance as Hospital is Reached

HAYWARD, Nov. 2.—Rushed in an ambulance to an Oakland hospital in a last effort to save her life by operating, Miss Helen Gibbs, a pretty Hayward telephone clerk, died last night with tragic suddenness just as the ambulance reached the hospital gates.

She was seized with appendicitis several days ago, the attack reaching an acute stage last night. Attending physicians, recognizing that an immediate operation was necessary, had her conveyed to an Oakland hospital, but death intervened before the operation could be performed.

Miss Gibbs resided with her parents on B street, Hayward, and was employed as a telephone clerk in the Oakland office of the telephone company. She had many friends in this city and in Oakland.

TO FORM STATE FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION

HAYWARD, Nov. 2.—Orchardists in this section are interested in the organization of a State Fruit Growers' Association at the state convention and farmers' assembly to be held at Los Angeles, November 10 to 14. While local organizations for the protection of fruit growers exist in the different counties, it is felt that an organization with a statewide scope will result in material benefit to growers.

Attention has been drawn to the excellent work of similar associations in other states in creating an increased interest in movements designed to benefit agricultural people, in carrying on the work the growers' association will co-operate with the agricultural college and the State Horticultural Commissioner's office.

AMERICANS SEND RELIEF TO BELGIUM

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—To lose no time in carrying out its decision, announced yesterday to help the destitute non-combatants in Europe with the Rockefeller Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation has engaged today with plans for getting the first relief ships away tomorrow and immediately sending its own commission to Europe to direct further work.

This is the first time that the Rockefeller Foundation, whose endowment is $100,000,000, has undertaken charitable work in such direct and wholesale way, its philanthropies heretofore having been concerned mainly with work along scientific lines.

The first move in sending a relief ship to Europe, involves an outlay of $275,000, and from the announcement of plans it would appear that this was only a small part of what was contemplated, and that the appropriation might rank as the largest individual donation ever made for war relief.

At the Rockefeller Foundation headquarters today it was said that further action than had been outlined in last

FOOD SUPPLY NOW ON WAY TO BELGIANS

By Associated Press.

ROTTERDAM, via London, Nov. 2.—The unloading of the steamer Coblenz, which reached here from England Saturday night with 1000 tons of foodstuffs sent by the American commission for the relief of the people of Belgium, began immediately after her arrival and continued throughout Saturday night and Sunday at high pressure. The cargo was promptly transferred to river and canal vessels, which last night started on their way to Belgium.

The Brussels correspondent of the Rotterdam Courant, writing regarding the need of foodstuffs, says:

"Lines of people form in front of the bakers' shops before daybreak, and a large number daily are unable to obtain any of the hard brown bread, which is the only kind now baked."

BERKELEY READY TO GO TO COURT

City Attorney to Present Plea
Wednesday for Writ to Force Paving.

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—Preparation of the city's case against the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway, to force by writ of mandamus the immediate permanent improvement of Grove street, is well in hand according to the statement this morning of City Attorney Frank V. Cornish. The application for a writ will be presented in the supreme court in San Francisco, Wednesday.

It is expected that the writ will secure an alternative writ, directing the company either to proceed with the work or to show cause why it should not proceed. Both Cornish and George Clark, special counsel, are impressed with the probability that the company cannot show cause.

Cornish stated this morning that the carrying of the application to the supreme court later of the day than the writ will be based upon the urgency of the matter. The city will attempt to show that immediate decision is necessary that their portion of the street has been paved by property holders and that this paving is apt to disintegrate unless the company immediately supplements it by paving the tracks.

As a second reason for approaching the supreme court the city will refer to the recent decision of that court in the case of St. Helena vs. Napa Valley railroad. There the city faced an exactly parallel situation, and won support from the supreme court.

There were rumors at the city hall this morning to the effect that the company would not meet the city's demands and not permit the case to go before the court. The city council will meet tomorrow morning, and it is expected that the statement may be on hand at that time from the company. There is a sentiment in the council now for permitting the company a slight extension of time, and it is thought possible the company may apply for such an extension.

ALAMEDA HIGH SCHOOL REJOICES OVER VICTORY

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—The students of the Alameda High School are still in the spirit of victory this morning following the football team's victory over Oakland High School on Saturday, but they had to content themselves with small rallies in the school yard this morning before it was time to start in the regular day's work. A few yells were given and the students held a small rally in the yard, but a big rally was not held as Captain Boile von Schmidt and the rest of the football team thought that it would not be a good thing for the team, as it was liable to give an over-confident spirit to the boys. However, a large rally is being planned for Friday afternoon to celebrate the victory over Oakland, which is scheduled for Saturday, November 7.

Dr. George Thompson was high in his praise, this morning, of the team. He gives them credit for playing the best game he had ever seen and would have gladly given the boys time for a rally this morning if the occasion had warranted.

FIRE ALARM SYSTEM IS DIVIDEND FOR ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—As a dividend of the Municipal Electric Light Plant of this city, the city is to receive a first-class fire alarm system. The commission convened Saturday evening and Superintendent J. J. O'Connell presented plans and specifications for the new system. The plans and specifications were adopted and the secretary authorized to advertise for bids. The old plant in the rear of the city hall, which is obsolete, will be eliminated. Seven new fire alarm boxes will also be added. The present boxes and wiring will be utilized, only the new central equipment being installed.

HUNTERS ARE KEEPING BAY RESIDENTS IN FEAR

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—Owing to the activity of hunters along the south shore, residents of the bay districts are entering complaints with the police. Yesterday Green Majors of 2044 Clinton avenue appealed to the police, declaring that lives are being endangered by the hunters. But the police are without means of capturing the offenders, having no police boat to make arrests on the water. Chief of Police J. J. O'Connell is planning to purchase a motorboat in the last budget, but this was denied by the city council. He is having the shore patrolled, however, and warning all hunters to shoot forth out.

Hayden, an expert who was to pass upon the value of the bonds. Hayden reported them to be in due form. The issue is for $500,000 worth of bonds in forty installments of $12,500 each. Owing to the ease with which San Francisco in three days sold over the counter one-third of its recent school bond issue, the council believes little difficulty will be met in disposing of the local issue.

Students Make Fight for New University Buildings

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 2.—University co-eds are determined that, after tomorrow, no more man may claim that women do not take an interest in the construction of the new university buildings. A group of several hundred of them are so very deeply interested in one phase of tomorrow's politics, the carrying of the university bonds, No. 11 on the ballot, that they are going to spend the whole day working for the success of the issue.

This afternoon final rallies were held by both the men and women students of the former there are about 600 ready to work tomorrow and of the latter not many less. A hundred or more automobiles have been impressed into service to use in carrying voters to the polls.

Not only in Berkeley, but in Oakland, Alameda and San Francisco as well, will the students of both sexes pursue their activity. At today's meetings there was a definite assignment of volunteers to different booths, where they will work in relays. In some parts of the two counties the men will do most of the electioneering, but the women will see that food is served to them so that at necessary times to avoid their having to quit the position.

Besides those who will work about the bay, a large number of students have already gone to their homes in the country to pursue a similar task there. The campus, in fact, has never known its student body to be so sincerely of one mind on any other question in the past. Tomorrow has been declared a holiday in all departments of the university to permit both students and faculty to participate in the campaigning.

DISCOVERS BOON TO CITRUS MEN

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 2.—The discovery of an inexpensive process for extracting the juice of citrus fruits is expected by the discoverer, Dr. Charles E. Burke of the department of chemistry and his associates to revolutionize the citrus industry of the State. The process involves a chemical and mechanical filtration which extracts the juice, leaving the clear, pure juice and no alcoholic base is used.

It is believed the extraction of the juice will be a boon to the citrus industry, as it will be a cheaper and more efficient method than the present one, which now depends largely upon the useless pulp.

The greater part of waste in handling citrus fruits comes, according to Dr. Burke, from over-production, culling, bruising and the failure to market the product becomes over-ripe. Through the practical application of the new process pure orange juice could be produced at an inexpensive cost, and the waste would be eliminated.

Exposed to every test, such as incubation for bacteria, and the juice, prepared according to Dr. Burke's formula, has retained its original flavor and has been pronounced perfect by horticulturists.

Of the $400,000 annual citrus fruit crop of California, from 10 to 20 per cent is wasted each year through unnecessary culling and bruising. The loss represents millions of dollars, the greater portion of which might be saved through the application of Dr. Burke's new process.

CAMPANILE BELLS NOT OBTAINABLE DURING WAR

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—The Campanile bells may not ring until the war is ended, if the fears now entertained on the campus of the university do not dissolve. In fact, the bells may not even leave their continental factory before that time.

The bells have not yet been ordered, and it is impossible to order them at the time, according to Professor Joan Helen Hovory, of the university architect. Meanwhile the stonework on the big tower is up to the level where the chimneys will be placed.

SEVERAL MEN ARRESTED

MAKES PLEA FOR HUMBLE TOAD

Garden Pests Succumb to the Watery Individual, Says
U. C. Scientist.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 2.—"Let us have more toads," urges Dean Thos. Forth Hunt of the University of California Journal of Agriculture. "That toad is easily worth $5 a year to its lucky owner is Storer's assertion since almost the whole of the toad's food is in troublesome-legged, sow bugs, spiders, slugs, worms and other enemies of garden and farm."

The toad's assistance in crowing moths and more precarious, says Storer so he proposes toad conservation. He suggests to the landowner that almost the whole of the toad's food is in troublesome-legged, sow bugs, spiders, slugs, worms and other enemies of garden and farm. To make these immigrants happy, small scooped out places can be provided, under boards where there is moisture, and spawning places also, and the breeding season.

The small boy's perverted desire to destroy toads, recommends Storer, should be transmuted into useful zeal to collect live toads and to foster their well-being and content.

Among the features of this number of the Journal of Agriculture, published monthly by the students, are an account by Dean Thos. Forth Hunt of the possibilities of the toad as a pest destroyer, a discussion by S. K. Mitra, a Hindu student of the university, of the Assam silk industry of Bengal, a discussion by R. L. Hampton of the irrigation system of the Corona Foothill Lemon company, a paper by J. V. Greer, professor of landscape gardening, telling how to make lawns in California, and a discourse by W. R. Ralston on fungicide methods, which may be eliminated a dangerous new pest of citrus trees, the gray citrus scale.

FINISH SWIMMING POOL
FOR WOMEN STUDENTS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 2.—The benefactions of Regent Phoebe Apperson Hearst to the university represent a value of millions, but of them all none has brought greater joy to the students than the gift of the new swimming pool soon to be completed. It is on Coliseum avenue, adjoining Hearst hall, itself a gift of the university.

The new swimming pool is of concrete, 40x15 feet, 3 1/2 feet deep under the diving boards and on one side connected with the concrete tank of the old pool. The Greek theater, where women spectators may watch water races and diving feats, is a new addition to the pool. The pool is a new addition to the pool.

Pertinent Gossip

NOVEMBER WILL BE GALA MONTH FOR FIGHT FANS

Unless Game Itself Is Knocked Out, Many Fine Bouts Are in Sight.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)

November promises to be, as usual, a gala month for the boxing fan; that is, the month in which the most important and narrow of the battles of Old Red Vetter. Such a contingency seems unlikely to the writer, who figures the anti-boxing bill will be passed under the wave of public approval brought about by too much legislation. Freddie Welsh and our old friend Ad Wolfast meet tonight in New York at the Municipal Auditorium. One of these there is the possibility that the Michigan veteran might knock the Englishman out and thus regain the title, but the odds are so much in his favor that a million dollars—just possible.

The Clubb-chabby battle Friday continues to hold the center of attention for the public etc. This clash of the middle-weight rivals is the best that could be arranged and the most important of the season. Both held recently scheduled fights for the future. Both boxers entertained unusually large crowds yesterday. Clubb boxed in front of a record crowd of 10,000. Charley Horn and Mark O'Donnell.

His weight was announced by Manager Lichtenstein at 156 pounds, which is a Boxer's weight. He has been in the ring a long time, so close up to an important match.

Chip did his read and gym work, and he has his upper and lower rounds three each with Al Williams, Tom McMahon and Babe Picato.

Three preliminaries have been arranged and will be held as follows:

Al Williams vs. Al Hemple, heavy weights, six rounds.

Ray Campbell, light weights, six rounds.

Light Reese vs. Joe Galda, feather weights, four rounds.

Boxed six rounds, with Clubb's money in sight waiting to be placed.

weighing fifteen pounds more than his ever did before, will step into the ring with a new, more powerful, more efficient, ebony hued fighting machine; "Willie" will outclass McAllister by nearly a mile. The fight will be a sure thing to prove faster and cleverer than Wills and his friends believe that he can do that in four rounds.

The Wheelmen's club has run into snag. Its efforts to re-match Averett and Burns for the November 10th, Oddie and Burns, has failed. The club is not rich enough, the snag comes in the direction least expected.

Joe Burns has never taken any trouble to conceal the fact that one of the greatest ambitions of his life was to hammer the boys Northampton and the state of Insensibility. Broadway has rung to the challenges issued by Frankie since that evening a year ago. In the Frank's fight with the boys in the old Piedmont Pavilion, and did it easily by just showing out that straight left arm. He left the excited young novice crashing into it.

September saw the pair hook up after the resources of diplomacy and conversation had been completely exhausted in an effort to make the match. Now Frankie wants a cool nine hundred hundred dollars guaranteed to get the fight with Burns. He says he is willing to accept less to meet almost any other boy they meet. Burns wants nine hundred to meet the Portuguese, even if it's only for four rounds.

Mel Moffitt charged into the arena yesterday afternoon and spent the day in the city, looking for a fight.

Manager Proctor and Frankie Burns came from dawn until the full moon beamed over the roof tops and then Mel propped up the fight and resigned in favor of Jimmy Rohan.

"Make your own matches," said Mel. "Either Frankie is afraid of the top or he's afraid of the bottom."

Rohan has offered Burns a 30 per cent privilege and the right to enter the ring at catch weights with guaranteed money. Burns demands and would accept for any other boxer but the Portuguese. Burns has

There Is But One PIANOLA

Though widely imitated, the Pianola alone has those vital features which make artistic playing by music or all reality.

You, or anyone, may sit down before the Pianola and instantly play with feeling, through the guidance of the Metrosyle—a correct and authoritative guide, enabling you to at once grasp the composer's thought, and to understand his interpretation. The Metrosyle is but one of many important features exclusive to the Pianola; these vital improvements make the Pianola supreme—and give it the unanimous indorsement of the world's most famous pianists, who say with one accord: "The Pianola is the ONLY player instrument worthy of serious musical consideration."

Investigate the Pianola—try it yourself—just once—then you'll understand.

CHURCHES OBSERVE ALL SAINTS' DAY

Special Services Are Held in Local Houses of Worship.

All Saints' Day was celebrated yesterday in the Catholic and Episcopal churches throughout the city. Programs of sacred music were given in all the houses of worship, where special sermons touching upon the significance of the holy day were preached.

The solemn services were continued this morning in the Catholic churches. Rev. Father P. J. Ryan delivered the sermon yesterday morning in St. Anthony's Catholic church and special services were conducted in St. Mary's church, where Father Delaney gave the sermon. At St. Patrick's, West Oakland, Rev. Father Edward Maher spoke at the solemn high mass.

The prescribed ritual was carried out to the letter in Episcopal churches, where the celebration of the Holy Eucharist was held, and the sermons embodied the general subject: "The Church Militant and the Church at Rest."

Special music was a feature at St. Paul's, Trinity, St. John's and the Church of the Advent. The chorals were all decorated for the occasion. St. Peter's will note All Souls' day tomorrow with a holy communion service at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Edgar F. Gee officiating.

OAKLAND CONSTABLES' RE-ELECTION PREDICTED

On the eve of election the friends of Morris H. Lane, constable of Oakland township, are predicting a record vote for him tomorrow. Lane has proved one of the most popular and efficient officials who ever held office in this city and the attorneys doing business with his office are his strongest supporters, which is the best evidence that the office is being conducted efficiently. Lane's candidacy has been endorsed by the Alameda County Bar Association and the various political and improvement clubs of Oakland township have also gone on record as favoring Mr. Lane for re-election.

Constable Hempstead is also a candidate for re-election. He has been a very capable man in office.

FOREIGN TRADE SCHOOL UNIQUE

Idea Launched by Y. M. C. A.
First Effort Toward War
Created Activities.

Two east bay men have developed a unique and timely idea in the Foreign Trade School which is being launched this week by the San Francisco Young Men's Christian Association in co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce. They are J. Gustav White, educational secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, who lives at 225 Fifty-ninth street, Oakland, and Ernest C. Brown, who resides at 1429 Benton street, Alameda. White is connected with the Export Department of Walman, Peck & Company. The school is part of the affiliated Y. M. C. A. Schools of San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley, and is one of the first efforts made in this country to prepare men for the commercial activities which are being created by the European war and Panama Canal. A large number of the leading business men of the bay region will co-operate in giving the courses. Instruction includes: 1. principles in exporting and importing; 2. laws relating to foreign trade; 3. applied mathematics; 4. sales-advertising; 5. foreign languages; 6. accounting essentials. The opening session will be held Thursday, November 5, at 3 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. building, corner Golden Gate avenue and Leavenworth street, San Francisco. On this occasion J. Anton de Haas of the Department of Economics of Stanford University will give a "Historical Sketch of International Trade." Captain Robert Dollar, president of the Dollar Steamship Company and George C. Boardman, a director of the Chamber of Commerce will also speak. All men interested are invited to attend. The idea of training men for foreign trade has been developed in both Germany and England but no schools have made a specialty of this phase of education in the United States. In comparison with this initiative, during the last week word has been received from New Orleans and New York city indicating that both of these ports are also taking up this educational project. "This is another illustration of the American principle of training volunteers after war is declared for the commercial opportunity," he now before us," said Secretary White in commenting on the subject. "Nevertheless we expect commercial victory and certainly have a splendid chance to win it," he continued. "The hour of America's opportunity has struck."

CUBAN ELECTION IS HELD; DAY PEACEFUL

HAVANA, Nov. 2. — Reports received here from all sections of the island indicate that the Congressional and municipal elections held yesterday passed off tranquilly. Owing to the factional subdivisions in the principal parties, it will be impossible to determine for several days the faction which the administration indorsed. President Menocal's right to cast his ballot was successfully challenged, on the ground that the President had neglected to register in Havana and that his last registration was at Puerto Padre, where he resided prior to taking office.
